2022 ACCELERATOR AWARDS Finalist Application and Awardee Selection

Leadership, to be written by the Applicant Leader

Share a history of your professional and personal experiences that have brought you to this work and Big Idea. If, as discussed with TLPM, your organization has more than 1 leader, please have all leaders answer this question. Most organizations will only have their Executive Director answer this question. As possible, please keep the word count to about 400 words per person.

Youth Participation

Tell us about the youth in your program: Community characteristics, demographics, number of youth served, etc. How have and do the youth in your program get connected to your work, and how do you reduce barriers for participation?

Systems Change

1. Provide data that describes the opportunity gap and/or circumstances of marginalization that your systems change effort is working to address and how this data guides your systems change strategies.
2. What steps are you currently taking toward your systems change goals? What next steps do you plan to take to advance your systems change goals and how will you measure the impact/know if they are succeeding?
 - a. Please either supplement information or update information that was shared in your Round 1 application. Please describe these strategies and tactics in relation to the Macro and Civic Systems you identified in the Round 1 application that your work seeks to change?

Resources and Capacity

Describe how you will use $500,000 from The Lewis Prize to advance your Big Idea and systems change work. What expenses will the funds cover and how will this investment contribute to transforming systems or creating new systems that replace circumstances of marginalization with equity for your youth, their families, and community?

General

Is there anything else you would like to share? If you wish to provide new details or answers in response to Round 1 Reader/Semi-Finalist Review Panel comments or questions, please use this space.*

Uploads

1. Applicant Leader's Resume or Curriculum Vitae - include professional, volunteer, and educational background.
 - a. If, as discussed with TLPM, your organization has more than 1 leader, include resume/CV's for all leaders. Most organizations are only uploading the resume/CV of their Executive Director.
2. Board of Directors Roster - for each member, provide: name, Board role (officers/committee chairs), connection to community served, board tenure, profession, & 100 word description of how their expertise and/or experience compliment and move-forward the work of your Big Idea (Active advisors for fiscally sponsored projects is acceptable). You may instead include a link to your website if this information is listed there.
3. Program Staff Leadership Roster - name, position, connection to community served, tenure with the organization/program, & 250 word max. bio for each. You may instead include a link to your website if this is listed there. You do not need to include the leader(s) who's narrative and resume/CV was shared above.
4. 2 Letters of Support from Community Partners - Articulate the nuances of the opportunity gap or circumstances of marginalization jointly addressed with the Finalist, the Finalist's role and impact addressing this situation, and how the partnership leverages the strengths and capacities of both organizations and/or their shared wider network.
5. A budget detailing how the organization would spend the $500,000 Accelerator Award over a 2-5 year period. *If your organization is awarded the Accelerator Award, this budget proposal may be revised and updated.

Musical Merit

Ask youth musicians from your program to choose one recording or video of themselves performing that they are most proud of. Include a brief caption as to why it was chosen.
